We primarily discuss the six biggest leagues (in our mind) that we're going to go on to discuss now, and all of them have unique traits and attributes that we believe make them fascinating to watch.

Premier League The English Premier League is considered by many to be the most entertaining division of football on the planet, and it's kind of hard to argue against that.

Many of the world's top clubs compete there, and when it comes to the finances involved, it's pretty difficult to say they aren't at the top of the list.

Manchester United are obviously considered to be the biggest name, but alongside them you've got the likes of Liverpool, Manchester City, Chelsea and so many
