Ontario regulators have set strict advertising guidelines and are currently considering banning any celebrities from shilling for legal sportsbooks.

Michael Meredith projected that the state would take in $23 million in tax revenue per year from legal wagering, and after expenses and an earmark for responsible gambling programs, the balance would be directed to the state's pension fund.

For comparison, the state in 2022 took in $112.

All six legalized digital wagering, and there's no question that Kentuckians have been crossing the border to bet on sports.

"Sports betting is a Class III game, and we care about age gates in all the other casino games, so why wouldn't we care here?" she said.

And all of that can lead to gambling issues down the road, so when we are talking about something that is far more risky and accessible, then 21 is more appropriate.
